Gold Star Mothers to Meet Oct. 4

The Torrance Memorial chapter of American Gold Star Mothers will hold their regular monthly afternoon meeting in the American Legion auditorium in Torrance on Wednesday, Oct. 4, at 2 o'clock.

The chapter is making a drive for salvage, and any one having rags of any description to donate may call Torrance 2220-W or Terminal 4-4998 and arrangements will be made to pick up. All funds earned by the organization are used for the benefit of hospitalized veterans, their families, or for the American Gold Star Mothers' Home, which is located in Long Beach.

Advice Asked Of Torrance Bar Assn.

The American Legion, Disabled Americans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of the Torrance Area have requested the Torrance Bar Association to advise the dependants of veterans now in the Armed Forces of the United States, as to their legal rights should they become involved legally.

So far, all attorneys contacted have willingly offered their services.

During the last war all professional Business and Labor leaders co-operated to the fullest extent with the Veteran Groups.

Fuchsia Club Of Lomita Wins Trophy

Lomita branch of the California Fuchsia society has been awarded a trophy for its excellent exhibit at the Los Angeles county fair in Pomona.

The trophy, a silver tray, is on display in the shade garden booth sponsored by the Lomita group, C. O. Eipper designed the booth which depicts the rear entrance of a Cape Cod cottage.

Spectators view a garden of fuchsias, begonias and ferns in pots and hanging baskets. A brick path leads to the cottage door beside which a porch light burns. The windows are further enhanced by shelves of potted plants.

This is the third time this year that the Fuchsia club has brought honors to Lomita. Two other occasions were the June flower show and the award of the Fairclo trophy to Mr. and Mrs. John Gerster in the California garden competition.

Halldale PTA Holds First Fall Meeting

In the absence of Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president, Mrs. W. C. Sidwell, president pro. tem., welcomed many new members to the first fall meeting of the Halldale P. T. A., Thursday afternoon at the Halldale school.

Following the reading of the inspirational, "The Builders", by Mrs. John Blackman, Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, principal of Halldale School, gave an interesting account of her trip to Mexico this summer. Mrs. Bonwell described many interesting experiences she had on her trip, and also related a little of the economic conditions of the country.

Many activities which will be of interest to the community were announced at the meeting.

Mrs. E. N. Reese, Parent Education chairman, again reminded the group of the two adult education classes now being held at Halldale school: the Consumer Education class which is held each Tuesday afternoon, 1:00 to 3:00 P. M., conducted by Mrs. Alpha Stump, and the Women's Chorus and Voice class, each Wednesday evening, 7:30 to 9:30 P. M., under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Adams. Mrs. Reese stressed the fact that both classes are open to everyone interested, and the Consumer Education class is a credited subject for those who may be interested in completing their high school education.

Halloween activities were outlined to the group. The traditional Halloween parade by all the students will precede an interesting program, which will feature a play by the after school dramatic class. The affair will start at 10:00 A. M. and continue until noon, at which time luncheon will be served to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill King returned to Torrance last week after a trip to Chicago. They visited many friends and relatives while there.

M. Franzen And Rozum Exchange Wedding Vows

White and yellow chrysanthemums formed a picture as the setting in the chancel of the Nativity Catholic Church for the lovely autumn wedding of Miss Marilyn Jean Franzen and Charles Raymond Rozum at 3:15 Sunday afternoon, Sept. 24.

Rev. Patrick J. McGuinness, pastor read the double ring service before 300 guests. Servers were Leigh and Larry Huat.

Mrs. Mel McConologue organist played a program of bridal music, during the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Franzen of 2870 Carson Street. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Rozum of 1754 Flower Street.

Given in marriage by her father, the attractive bride was lovely in a white satin gown, fashioned with a hoop skirt and long flowing train. Her illusion veil cascaded from a scalloped crown of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations, gardenias and bouvardia, centered with an orchid.

Miss Joyce Franzen served her sister as maid of honor. She was attired in a full length frock of orchid satin, fashioned in the Puritan design.

Bridesmaids, Sally Valencia and Shirley Way were attired in yellow and aqua satin in matching design. They wore matching halo hats and carried gladioli bouquets in contrasting colors.

Donald Little of Bakersfield, served the groom as best man. Ushers were Robert Azavedo of Bakersfield and Edward Gavatto of San Diego.

"Ave Maria" and "On This Day O Holy Mother" were sung by Miss Mary Lou Way, soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall. Late evening a supper for members of the immediate families and close friends was served at the home of the groom's parents. Afterwards the newlyweds departed on a honeymoon trip. Upon their return the groom will leave for coast guard duty in Alaska.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance high school, summer class of '50. Rozum is a graduate of Long Beach Polytech high school.

The new Mrs. Rozum is employed at the Bank of America, Torrance.

Floral decorations for the wedding were arranged by Mrs. Gladys Pietachke, close friend of the bride's family. Out of state guest was Miss Elsie Muchler of Sioux City Falls, North Dakota.
